Many had indicated - and with good reason - that the Simpson's trial was a very good sampling of the world that we lived in. Those who had indicated that the Simpson Trial was simply a sampling of the world we live in, had some premise of A Georgia Love Story - but it goes deeper than the surface. Ironically, he is the only male in his immediate family not to have seen front line combat: another seven have served, between them, in the armies of three different countries in six different wars.
